

Fall On Me – R.E.M.

There's a problem, feathers, iron
Bargain buildings, weights and pulleys
Feathers hit the ground before
The weight can leave the air

Riff in C

Don't fall on me (what is it up in the air for?) (it's gonna fall)
Fall on me (if it's there for long) (it's gonna fall)
Fall on me (it's over, it's over me) (it's gonna fall)

There's the progress we have found (when the rain)
A way to talk around the problem (when the children reign)
Building towered foresight (keep your conscience in the dark)
Isn't anything at all (melt the statues in the park)

Well, I could keep it above,
But then it wouldn't be sky anymore
So if I send it to you,
You've got to promise to keep it whole
